Multiple Lenses

In your group, choose a short television commercial to watch on a mobile device. After watching the commercial, write below what you saw in each category.

Who was in the commercial?
What was the commercial selling?
When did the commercial originally air?
Where did the commercial appear to take place?

Compare your answers among your group members. What answers were different? What answers were similar? How do multiple viewers challenge or support the commercial's credibility?

What's the Story?

In your group, read each Gospel passage and fill in the chart.

	Matthew 28:1-10	Mark 16:1-11	Luke 24:1-12	John 20:1-18
Who?
What?
When?
Where?
Why?

How do multiple accounts help non-witnesses believe an event?

How do different versions have a negative impact on a story's credibility?